End of Year Computing Expectations: EYFS

Computing
Completes a simple program on a computer.
Uses ICT hardware to interact with age-appropriate computer software.
Children recognise that a range of technology is used in places such as homes and schools. They select and use technology for particular purposes.